“Denny Gillem is the real deal... a straight shooter and a real warrior.
As a radio host, he’s smart, informative and engaging,”

– Phil Tower, Director of News & Information Programming, WOOD Radio 1300 AM & 106.9 FM

Frontlines of Freedom is a Military and Veteran News-Talk Radio program, designed to address and discuss the most pressing topics facing our Armed Forces. In addition to the current war and military readiness, the show addresses military families, veteran’s activities and homeland security issues. Past guests include Cabinet members, Generals, Admirals, Ambassadors, Officers of all ranks, enlisted members, politicians, and military family members.

Frontlines of Freedom is hosted by Lt. Col. Denny Gillem, U.S. Army (Retired), a highly decorated military leader. After graduating from West Point, Colonel Gillem served 22 years in the Army, first as an Airborne Ranger with two tours in Vietnam. He was awarded two Purple Hearts and seven awards for valor. Gillem also served as a Mideast War Planner at MacDill AFB.

Frontlines of Freedom began in June 2007 & is growing fast since beginning national syndication in June 2012.
